

I think that it would be a shame for XM not to be able to broadcast their commercial free radio. I also think that they should be able to broadcast the traffic and weather just like the other radio stations do. This is just another attempt by big business to stifle the competition and I think it is wrong. Please don't let this happen.